

WELCOME FROM OUR TITLE SPONSOR: THE SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTISTS

Greetings,

The Seventh-day Adventist Church is excited to be the Title Sponsor for the 7 Bridges Marathon. Health and fitness are priorities of the Seventh-day Adventist Church. We love to see our communities come together to participate in events, like this one, that promote these two priorities.

The Seventh-day Adventist Church has a rich history in Chattanooga and the surrounding communities. We have churches, schools, and many other institutions throughout this area of Tennessee and North GA. Sponsoring the 7 Bridges Marathon is one more way we want to give back to this community.

As Seventh-day Adventists, we are always excited to share Jesus with those who may be searching or have questions. If you have questions, would like somebody to pray with/for you, or would like to study the Bible I want to encourage you email 7bridges@gccsda.com. One of our local pastors will reach out to you.

As we look forward to this race, we look forward to men and women of all ages, from all backgrounds, of all different religions, of all different skill levels joining together for a day of fun in the beautiful fall surroundings of Chattanooga, Tennessee.

Welcome to the 7 Bridges Marathon!
